Every day a student is absent is a lost opportunity for learning. What our students learn in high school allows them to become financially independent.

NEWS:

This week, we had our Girls' Varsity Senior Night on Monday. Student members of the Awareness & Inclusivity Club did a fantastic job presenting an anti-bullying message during an assembly to middle and high school students on Unity Day during FLEX for all students in grades 7-12. Our first family education night took place on Wednesday. A Cappella had its first rehearsal last week and is looking forward to several upcoming performances, the first one being at the faculty vs staff basketball game on November 3rd. Students from AP Seminar, Dystopian Literature, & 11th grade ELA traveled to Universal Preservation Hall in Saratoga Springs last week to watch a staged performance of Fahrenheit 451. The students enjoyed the show and an independent lunch on the town. In student news, Shea Mudge was accepted to the Area All-State Choir in Carmel this year. Anna Kukon was accepted at Siena College, and Ashley Nack was accepted to the University of Hartford. Evan Hoffman and Aiden Farnsworth have taken the Oath of Enlistment for the Marine Corps. We are very proud of all of our students' accomplishments! Next week, we have a Halloween themed Teen Night on Saturday, from 6-8 p.m. The Class of 2025 is doing a canned food drive for our food pantry.
